Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Works of Edgar Allan Poe, Vol. 8 of 10: Tales Humor Many years ago, it was the fashion to ridicule the idea of love at first sight ; but those who think, not less than those who feel deeply, have always advocated its existence. Modern discoveries, indeed, in what may be termed ethical magnetism or magnetoaesthetics, render it probable that the most natural, and, consequently, the truest and most intense of the human affections are those which arise in the heart as if by electric sympathy - in a word, that the brightest and most enduring of the psychal fetters are those which are riveted by a glance. The confession I am about to make will add another to the already almost innumerable instances of the truth of the position. My story requires that I should be somewhat minute. I am still a very young man - not yet twenty-two years of age. My name, at present, is a very usual and rather plebeian one - Simpson. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds...
