Forward March! tis said, Like him who burned his ships, but more elate Great Sherman seems his all to fling on fate. Yet loud it thunders all along the shore, -- God grant that soon the Cyclone may be o er, Our ship is strong; a strong hand at the hehn; A weaker heart the sea would overwhelm, And ours rides out the gale, because he threw The dead weight out the hull, as all must do, Who would win stable peace, and happy be--What State saves freemen must itself be wholly free! My soul like you, is tired of blood and war, Yet sees the nearing signs of Avatar, Like flaming sword suspended over them! Ere Caesar s Son came sweeping...
