Their commonwealth, commenced at first by a few republican families voluntarily exiled from the old world, is now, at the end of two and a half centuries, a republican empire of established continental dimensions of policy. Restricted heretofore in its development; to so much of our continent as belongs to the Atlantic, a point of progress is reached, whence our energies, overflowing towards the west, expand to embrace the regions of the Pacific Ocean, and establish direct, and familiar relations with Asia. This movement, long in preparation, now engages so large a force, that its advance daily acquires volume and celerity. Federal legislation, to progress pari passu with the people, is demanded upon a basis to give effect to the great central movement resulting from their energies. A liberal understanding of the mission of our people, counsels a...
