Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Musician The Musician The wind in unseen pulses trembling came, As though twere breathed from some great breast of love; And tenderly it moved as though it knew The heart-deep sighs that stirred it on its way, With wistful whispering to touch the world To one full voiced sorrow and one moan. From mystic plains it came, whose mighty curve For aye had bended up to kissing skies, A vasty waste where vestal angels choir, And with their music sweet, melt tearful stars All into golden harps, and string them well With sounding silver from the moon s sad heart. And so it came and tarried in the streets Of the far spreading city, lost itself Amid the heaven flaring spires and walls That buffet with the storms too near the sun, And found itself while weeping over crowds That snaked their way beneath the brazen lights. Then out beyond the walls in sick retreat, Full heavy, as with human hearted pain It panted, rested on the sands from whence It crept toward the gorges that were made When mad eruption spat the mountains up In diabolic frenzy, at the skies. There, sipping of the snow-chilled mountain tears, It throbbed with refreshed life and gently rose From out the rich, dark opal distances, Up to the radiant and refulgent light About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
